There is an escape.

There are days when getting yourself home at rush hour is especially gruesome. If you're looking for a way out, our door is open — a cool drink with a friendly face surely beats the traffic. Relax in comfortable furniture. Lose yourself in conversation sheltered in our tape sound system. Concentrate on a game of pool. Sit back and enjoy live entertainment upstairs. There's plenty here to let you forget the outside world for awhile.

Who ever thought that going home could be such a good time?
